The Ordinances.

The vote on the ratification of the ordinances of the Convention, is very small throughout the State yet it is sufficiently strong to indicate the general approval of our people. The wonder is, that it should have been so large.

The Standard, a few days ago intimated that we did not vote for the ordinances. We did vote to sustain the Convention. We ask if Gov. Holden did as much? We learn he did not vote at all on the ordinances.

SENATOR—Full returns from Stokes County have not yet been received, but it is believed that Mr Buner is elected State Senator from Stokes and Forsyth.

Stokes County has probably gone for Holden.

For Congress, Brown has a majority.—Salem Press.

From Washington.

Governor Holden has received the following telegraphic dispatch, dated

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11th, 1865.

HIS EXCELLENCY, W. W. HOLDEN:—The President directs me to say that he expects you to continue in the exercise of the functions of Provisional Governor of North Carolina until you shall have been relieved by directions from him.

WM. H. SEWARD.

We copy the above from the editorial columns of the Standard. A similar dispatch has been sent to Govs. Sharkey and Perry, for the reason that none of the Southern States have yet met the full requisitions of the government Until the Southern States do all that is required by the government, the Provisional governments will be continued. This is simply what every thoughtful man has expected.

These dispatches have nothing to do with the recent elections in any of the Southern States.—The failures of the Conventions and Legislatures of the Southern States, to do all that the government requires of them, is the reason and the sole reason why the President determines to continue with us the Provisional governments and of course the exercise of military authority.

There is nothing in this that ought to surprise, much less alarm the Southern people. President Johnson has given the South the fullest proofs of his sympathy and kind intentions towards us.—The military rule which he has exercised, has been mild and conservative. While our people would prefer to have civil law and rule entirely restored, yet in North Carolina, especially, we have had no cause to feel that we have been treated harshly by the administration of Gens. Schofield or Ruger. Gen. Ruger has been considerate and conservative, and has administered his office in a manner that has met the appreciation generally of the people. With the present military force in the State, few disorders of any kind have occurred, and we feel confident that none can occur, even if it lasted for months to come, which would be seriously offensive to either party. If we are to have military rule, we hope Gen. Ruger will be continued, for we have every confidence in his ability and in his disposition, to treat our people with kindness and consideration, while he observes at the same time the obligations imposed upon him by the government.

We have felt it our duty to say this much, because it is due to the President and to Gen. Ruger, and at the same time to quiet the fears which interested persons in the Gubernatorial election, have been disposed to excite. We repeat, the election of Mr. Worth as Civil Governor, cannot have the effect of continuing military rule and authority in the State, a day longer than it would have been, if Gov. Holden had been elected. A knowledge of Jonathan Worth's past and present position, principles and course can but strengthen the State in the confidence of the President, the Congress and the people of the North

The Court Journal.

We do pity the poor fellows, the Joses and the rest. Their anger and malice have run to seed. We are so afraid they will burst, with very grief and madness at us personally and with the Sentinel, that we almost begin to hope that Mr. Worth is defeated. We certainly do not wish them such a fate as befel fully as good a man as any of them can boast to be, who fell down and whose "bowels gushed out"—but really the rage of the editorial corps of the Court Journal, excites our sympathy and commiseration. During the campaign they run a tilt along side of Baron Munchausen, but yesterday that dialogue &c., bore off the palm.

We tell the whole brood that nestle about, and around, and beneath, and above the Court Journal,

"Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart, Little dogs and all,"

that we are not afraid of lies. They can pile them on to their heart's content. We shall never be moved from our propriety by all the falsehoods or lies that can be paraded by the Prince of liars or any of his imps One word of truth would affect us a thousand fold more than all the lies that Pandemonium can invent. We have sincere pity and sorrow for their mendacity and rage, and we despise their malice.

The Newbern Times.

This paper disclaims any personal attack upon us, and claims to have employed nothing but a legitimate resort in its attacks upon the Sentinel. The Times is mistaken. We sent our paper to it regularly. The article we complained of, was not only personally offensive, but totally misrepsented our political positions. It drew its views of our positions, not from our columns, but from the misrepresentations of the Standard, and hence our complaint. We never take offence at any course taken by a cotemporary, which is courteous or legitimate. We will not violate either if we know it.

U. S. Senators.

A city cotemporary, admitting the election of Mr. Worth, proposes the name of Gov. Holden for the U. S. Senate. The same paper has heretofore strongly contended, that no one should be elected to Congress who could not take the "test oath." Can Gov. Holden take that oath? We presume not.

We learn that Gov. Holden will most likely have a rival or cotemporary for the U. S Senate, in the person of Dr. R. J. Powell of Washington city.

A gentleman just returned from Washington states, that while he was in the city, a special friend of Dr. Powell urged upon him very strongly the claims of Dr. Powell for the U. S. Senate. At that time however, that person had no doubt of Gov. Holden's election.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11.

Gov. Wells has issued his proclamation calling a special session of the Legislature on the 23d, on the ground that the gravest interest of the State depend upon the presence of her United States Senators to act in the United States Congress.

Masonry and the Union--An Eloquent and Powerful Appeal.

To the Freemasons of the United States:

The deplorable contest in our country, which for the past four years has separated States and people, inaugurated and carried on to destroy the Federal Union of the United States, is now ended. History enthroned in the majesty of a coming judgment, with the calmness of retrospect, and the impartiality of truth, will determine on whom the responsibility rests of this crime against representative government. It will award to sections and individuals their merited condemnation. The oracles of truth and justice, unimpaired by the passions and prejudices of men, will proclaim a final and unalterable decree. Let us then leave to these attributes of Omniscience their divine duties. The civil war is closed. Efforts of patriots and statesmen must now be directed to the restoration of unity and concord among the people who so lately were in hostile array against each other. The things that are behind must no longer occupy our thoughts, since they excite discord and embittered association — The future must engage all our energies. The mighty task of constituting reconciliation is the duty now imposed upon us. The renewal of the covenant of peace and love must be by rebaptism with the spirit of charity in the waters of Lethe.

Brethren of the Order of Freemasons, we have our duties to perform. Masons who worship in the temple dedicated to a common fraternity, our masonic minds and hearts have been taught those sublime lessons, there only imparted.

As our ancient and honorable Order has never taken part "in conspiracies against the Government," since this is forbidden, its members must be true to the teachings of the Craft. We everywhere throughout this land, must be the first to show, by our conduct and conversation, by our example and precepts among men, that there is vital vigor in the virtues of Freemasonry. We are a united band free and accepted by and between ourselves Discord and enmity—the evil passions, revenge, distrust, hatred and malice, never yet have entered the masonic temple. If our faith is strong in the landmarks, if we have known of the doctrine that it liveth and abideth among us, in all times, in all peril, in every commotion, in strife and war, let us now demonstrate that we hold it as delivered to us by the Fathers. Our Order is consecrated to unity, brotherly love, charity. To enlighten mankind has been our mission since the earliest of ages. Before Christianity the temple of the Craft was open. Its teachers were calling before the days of the patriarchs, to mankind, to come and receive the light. That light has never yet gone out. The Jew, before the altar on the sacred mount; the Pharisee, in his adoration of the sun; the Musselman, bowing to the East in prayer; the Greek, before the altar of his divinity; the Christian, in devout faith at the foot of the cross, alike, in the days of their generation, knew and understood the mystic language.—"God said, let there be light, and there was light." Brethren, we, also, are gathered in our temple, you assembled in yours; Masons in every clime or country are, by adoption and acceptance, in a common fraternity, one, united and inseparable. There can be neither schism, separation or rebellion within or among us.—The white apron of repentance and innocence is an emblem we all comprehend. It teaches us that the entrance of the holiest of holies can be had but in subordination to the fundamental principles of the Order. It admonishes us at all times, under all circumstances, to renounce every act or deed, and the motives for either which can destroy unity, harmony and charity.

Each member of our fraternity in the several Grand Lodge jurisdictions in the United States is directly appealed to in his individual masonic character to maintain, in all their integrity, the principles of the Order. It is his solemn duty. Obligations once assumed must ever be binding in all their force, on the conscience of every Mason. We cannot, if we would, surrender or silence them They must unite the soul to the throne of Jehovah, and are as essential as His laws.

We invoke the serious consideration of the Craft to the most weighty responsibility to which reference is made These obligations impose on Masons and jurisdictions the recognition of those rights which are thus common to each and all, and constitute the life, power and virtues of masonic relations.

We believe it to be the duty of Freemasons to regard the Craft in the jurisdictions of the States of the South as brethren. It is theirs to recognize the power of this universal masonic landmark. Thus the reunion of fraternal association can be established, and this example before the people will be a demonstration of the living power of our venerable institution.

Brethren of the sunny South, we believe your faith and sincerity in the landmarks are equal to ours. We claim no right to sit in judgment over your fidelity or your obedience to the landmarks, or your devotion to their perpetuity. We recall from the past four years neither witness nor testimony. The light in the masonic temple casts no shadow. It is ever at the meridian when we look into each other's hearts, and take each other's hands in brotherly love. But while we are all Masons, we are also fellow countrymen. We are citizens of States whose prosperity is indissolubly connected with this Union. We are citizens of States where individual and collective happiness and welfare can be best maintained, encouraged and secured by the union of these States, as our fathers and your fathers made it by that great compact, the Constitution. Let us invoke your cordial and unreserved acknowledgment of this truth. Let us invoke your aid to cement together the people of the States, "without any reservation or self evasion of mind whatever." Let us, and you, come together in unity, in harmony, charity and brotherly love, as Masons laboring for the common benefit of our fellow-citizens and mankind.

The out-side world, our brethren round the globe, every people have had their anxious attention directed to this Union of States, in the land of the setting sun. The problem of free government has been closely observed in its practical working for the past half century. They know up and down in this land the Craftism are dwelling in the mystical organization of the Order. The world and our Craft are asking in every known tongue, has Masonry no power to heal the wounds of the commonwealth? Has Masonry no power to bind up that which is broken—to pour in oil and wine into the torn and lacerated hearts of citizens of the great nation of the West?

Have masonic teachings lost their power? Are the ears deaf that the people cannot hear the joyous sounds of unity and peace, concord, charity and brotherly love, which come out of the masonic temple as the rays of the morning out of chambers of the sunrise?

Brethren, let us show mankind the power and the truth of masonic landmarks. Let us gird our loins with strength, take the symbol of love and unity in our hands, put on our feet the sandals of good will, imbue our hearts with earnestness and faith; then will the glad tidings of great joy fill the masonic world; then will we throw away the iron tools of the outside craft of men, and again take up those symbolic emblems by which foundation stones of union are securely laid.

We owe our country and the world the duty of our example. Let us make it manifest Come among us; we will go among you. Your temple is our temple; your Masonry our Masonry; whither masonic teachings bid us go, let us go together. Brethren we invite you, by the great glory of our indestructible Order, by the undying light which illumines our pathway to and from the communion of the Craft, by your precept and example, and efforts among your fellow-country men, to begin the great work of reconstruction.

Then, in the future of this great nation, the voices of the whispering waves of the Pacific, uniting with the roar of the Atlantic, will proclaim, "mercy and truth are met together; right eousness and peace have kissed each other. Men of America, behold and listen! We, officers of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons of the State of Pennsylvania, have felt it our peculiar privilege thus to address the Craft in their several jurisdictions, North, South, East and West of this Union. We do this in the true spirit of Freemasonry. We appeal only to Masons by the immemorial language used among them everywhere. There is no other motive but charity, unity, brotherly love, which actuates us. With politics we have nothing to do. We are Masons, and as Masons we invoke your ear to listen, and your hearts to act. Brethren, by the love and right, hope and faith which belong to our Order, as from the beginning of time, we salute you.

May the great Architect of Heaven and Earth so level and square our minds and hearts, that by our motives and actions "men may know that Thou, whose name alone is Jehovah, art the Most High over all the earth!"

The undersigned have been induced to make this communication to the members of this Order in the United States, trusting that the purity of their purpose will be acknowledged and appreciated. Let the good of Masonry be extended and established, and mankind be led to believe that the virtues of this venerable Order yet exist in the potency of their primeval strength, wisdom, and beauty.

We salute you, as bound with us in the bonds of fraternal charity and love.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.—Mr. John Grubbs, of this county, came to his death on Monday evening of last week, about half a mile from Winston, on the Bethania road, by falling from his wagon, in attempting to adjust a plank, which had slipped forward against the horses, rendering them unruly. The fall frightened the horses still more, and they became wild and unmanageable, and Mr. Grubbs being entangled in the lines or a portion of the harness, was dragged some distance before he became extricated, receiving injuries from which he died in a short time.—Salem Press.

APPOINTMENT.—Fred D. Poisson, Esq, has been appointed as clerk and master in equity by Judge Buxton, the presiding judge of this district. Mr. Poisson has taken steps to enter upon its duties.—Wilmington Dispatch.

"Occasional" on the Repeal of the Test Oath.

"Occasional," the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, and known to be Colonel Jno. W. Forney, thus writes:

"I have never entertained a doubt that the much discussed Congressional oath would be ultimately repealed, but not until one of the objects of its enactment had been accomplished; not until the danger of admitting into the National Legislature men who only longed to enter there to plot new conspiracies had passed away. All the Democratic Senators and representatives in the last Congress but one took the oath, and in most cases cheerfully. Senator Bayard, of Delaware, refused it, and resigned. It is only when the oath touches the very parties it was framed to meet that the flesh quivers."

It is much to be regretted that our Northern countrymen cannot be brought to understand that there are not now in the South any persons, certainly no political combinations, who are engaged, or who desire to engage, in "plotting new conspiracies." Surely they have been furnished with the most forcible and convincing arguments to the contrary. The great supreme end of pacification is the restoration of the Southern States to the Union, so that the Union may be as it was before the war—a Union of equal States. In effecting this restoration, it is but natural and proper that the elements of incendiarism, disaffection and disloyalty, should be excluded, and with them, all men thus tainted. The object of such a policy is to guard against future discord from past causes. Far different, and far less commendable, is that punitive policy that gives amnesty, without oblivion, and exempts from confiscation only to perpetuate political disabilities. If a man is true now, however hostile in the past, and has taken the oaths of amnesty, and by his daily walk and conversation has given evidence that he means in future to discharge with fidelity all the duties of a good citizen, what object can be gained by his ostracism from representative trust? In the present circumstances of the country, it is far more likely that many good and true Southern men will be excluded from office, than that one unsound man will get into office. The repeal of this almost prohibitory law, which "Occasional" contemplates as an event likely, "ultimately" to occur, would be an act of magnanimity on the part of Congress, that would be in admirable consonance with the generous policy of President Johnson.

The great majority in the House of Representatives, by which this question of repeal will be determined, lack, we fear, that faith in the Southern people, because they have not that intimate knowledge of them that President Johnson has. He said in his address to the delegation of Southern gentlemen who visited him in September last: "I know the nature of the Southern people well enough to know that when they have become convinced of an error, they frankly acknowledge it in a manly, open, direct manner; and now in the performance of that duty, or, indeed, in any act they undertake to perform, they do it heartily and frankly." Again, said President Johnson: "On all sides I find this spirit of candor and honor prevailing."

The repeal of this law would be a signal indication of kindness to the South, which the Northern majority could well afford to exhibit. It would do more to bind the South to the North than any other act that could be done; nor would it, we believe, be followed by a single evil consequence. It would not admit into Congress a single man of present objectionable character, but it would open the door of admission to many of the first, best, and now, the truest, in the South.

If President Johnson can trust as provisional Governors, under whose direction and control the States are to be reconstructed, men who cannot conscientiously take that rigorous test oath, there is no reason why the Northern members of Congress should be unwilling to trust amnestied Southern men, who have given the same evidences of loyalty, without requiring them to take that oath.—Richmond Whig.

DIED,

On Monday the 13th inst., JOHN ALEXANDER, infant son of William and Annie Simpson, aged one month and 8 days.

The funeral will take place from the house of its parents to-day at 10 o'clock.

The friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

In Halifax County, N. C., on the 6th September last, WM. W. SUMMERELL, son of Joseph and Amarilus Summerell, in the 22d year of his age.

William Summerell was an amiable young man, modest and retiring in his manners, of industrious and frugal habits, attentive to business, and possessed the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. As a son, he was kind, loving, dutiful, and never for a moment hesitated to do the bidding of his parents. In 1862 he volunterred in the Confederate States service, joined the "Scotland Neck Mounted Cavalry," and to the close of the war performed all the arduous duties of a soldier, with a zeal and fidelity which won for him the admiration of his companions in arms. Returning to the parental roof he laid aside his sword and rifle, and entered at once upon an industrial pursuit, in which he labored until a very few days prior to the close of his life.

On the 1st Sabbath in September he attended Divine service at Smith's Church in this county, and the following Wednesday morning was a corpse.

Painful was this sad event to the large circle of friends and acquaintance he had thus early formed. But, Oh! the grief of a Mother's heart! Who can describe it?—who sympathize with her to the full extent of her bereavement? None save one who has passed through a like trying ordeal. And the Father too, who had centered in his son so many fond hopes, what must have been his feelings to have his dear boy, so full of promise, thus early snatched away! The tears and lamentations of his brothers and sisters evidenced to all how dear he was to them. But he has gone. On earth we shall see him no more. For some wise purpose, the great God, who suffers not a sparrow to fall to the ground without his notice, has seen it best to take him away; and though it may seem strange and mysterious that one so young, so good by nature, and so much beloved, should be thus early called away. Yet there is consolation in the thought, that the Being in whose hands are the destinies of us all, is "too wise to err, and too good to be unkind;" and that, what to our short-sighted vision seems hard to be borne, is often a blessing in disguise. "Joseph is not, and Simeon is not," said the pious old Jacob; but, when in a short time thereafter he was assured that Simeon was alive, and Joseph governor over all the land of Egypt his spirit revived, and he said, "It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive. I will go and see him before I die." May a still happier re-union, in a land where separations are unknown, be in store for Wm. W. Summerell, and his almost heart broken relatives. P.

In Halifax County, N. C., on the 10th October last, ELLEN DOUGLAS JONES, daughter of Willis C. Jones in the 29th year of her age.

Ellen was a beautiful girl, of a sympathetic turn of mind, a sweet and obliging disposition, and beloved by all who knew her. For years she had been the subject of severe affliction which she bore with a patience and fortitude which endeared her more fondly to the loved ones at home, and her friends generally than she would have been perhaps, if she had been her left to enjoy uninterrupted health. Her thoughts, doubtless were often turned in her hours of suffering, to the contemplation of that great future, in which is no pain, no sorrow, no unhappy forebodings, nothing that can disquiet, or in the least impair the perfect bliss of the soul. She leaned with a confidence that seldom wavered, upon the arm of her dear Lord and Saviour, and found much comfort in the words of the great Apostle, "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

Ellen's exit, however, from time to eternity, was sudden and unexpected. On the Friday preceding her decease, which was on Tuesday, she was taken with a chill; and although she seemed to be quite sick, it was not dreamed by her attendants that her sickness would be unto death. On the morning even of the day in which she ceased to breathe, it was thought that she was better. But a sudden change in her disease, in which some vital organ was attacked, soon terminated her sufferings, and calmly sweetly, and joyfully, we trust and believe, she breathed out her soul into the hands of Him who gave it. She had for several years been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and adorned her profession by her truly Christian deportment, a meek and quiet spirit, and a faith in God which sustained her to the last. Why then weep her early death? She has but changed her home here for a home among the good in Heaven. And though dear relations and friends, she cannot come to you, sweet and true is the thought, that you can go to her.

Thus in five weeks and one day has death twice entered the same family circle, and taken two of its brightest ornaments, Wm. W. Summerell, and Ellen Douglas Jones. Truly "in the midst of life we are in death." But,

Why do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call them to his arms.

Why should we tremble to convey,
Their bodies to the tomb;
There once the flesh of Jesus lay,

FACTS TO BE CONSIDERED.

THERE ARE BUT FEW SUBJECTS PRESENTED to the mind of man upon which there are not a great variety of opinions, and about which there are not protracted discussions. But there are a few facts so well established, and so uncontrovertible that they are universally assented to. One is that all men now living, will soon be called upon to gather up their feet and depart to the land of the dead. "One generation goeth, and another cometh, and we have no abiding city here," is a matter about which there is no dispute. Another is, "Of that day, and of that hour, knoweth no man." Whether death cometh at the twelfth hour or at the cock crowing, is of equal uncertainty to all.

Another is, that when wife and children gather around us, to take their final leave, in that sad circle centers all our earthly interest. The last earthly rational thought of Husband and Father, is Wife and Children (if worthy of sustaining such endearing relations.) Another is, no man living knows what may be the result of his efforts to secure a competence for his family. "Riches take to themselves wings and fly away," has been realized by how many? adverse winds of to-morrow, may take the place of to-day's prosperous gales; under currents which the most penetrating eye cannot see, or the strongest arm control, may in an evil hour sweep away the hard earnings of years. Another is, no man ever has, or ever can assume more sacred obligations, than Husband and Father. Hence it is said, that he that will not provide for his own household is worse than an infidel.

Now, what Husband and Father is there battling with the difficulties of life, knowing as he must, that uncertainties attend every effort, and wait upon every enterprise, that he has not with earnest voice, and anxious heart, called to the future to unlock its barred gates and reveal to him the result of this or that undertaking. But the only voice that comes from that land of silence, is, "Verily, thou knowest not what shall be on the morrow."

Such are some of the few facts about which there is no controversy, and such are some of the uncertainties that ever have, and ever will, gather around our pathway through life, and which have in generations past, and will in generations to come trouble and oppress the Husband and Father. Now in view of these facts, responsibilities, and uncertainties, it is for you to judge and decide upon the propriety, necessity, and duty, of making a policy on your life, for the benefit of your family. Will it not relieve you of your present anxiety to know that a certain portion of the fruits of you labors are secured to that family? Remember that whatever you pay for a life policy is paid to them. The stranger intermeddleth not with that.

Remember also, that $5000 paid to them in that day when the heart and flesh shall fail you, will be more to them, than $10,000 while you are here to provide for them. Also remember, that the amount for which you are insured will not be diminished in the settling of your estate, and that from generation to generation, Life Insurance has answered the end for which is was ordained, as fully, to say to the least, as any institution of man's creation, and that its primary object was, and still is, to secure the family ags ost the stern realities of want, and to relieve from corroding anxiety those who have assumed family responsibilities.

Do you say "I know it would be wise in me to take out a policy and I intend to do so soon; but just now I want to use all my funds in my business."—Friend, if it is wisdom in you to insure at all, it is folly to defer it, to-morrow is in eternity, therefore "Boast not thyself of to morrow," "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." "Procrastination is the thief of time."

The Aetna Life Insurance Company offers you all the inducements to insure that can be found in any company. Its assets are over a million and a half It has a surplus of $300,000 over and above what is required to reinsure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150,000. And it is issuing monthly nearly 1000 policies. Its rates for insurance are as reasonable as those of any other well established responsible Company. It is paying as large dividends to its policy holders as any other Company. Its officers are competent business men. Its assets, are as permanently and as safely invested as any other company can invest theirs, and from which as good interest is being received. It pays its losses as promptly, is as particular in the character of its risks, and as yet it is a stranger to litigation.
